THE BRITISH ECONOMIC REVIVAL
A Transatlantic Case Study

Michael Bates
Her Majesty’s Consul General

www.UKTradeInvest.com
The British Economic Revival

- 48 Consecutive quarters of growth
- Economic growth of 7.2% since 2001
  Compared to 3.2% growth for Eurozone
- CPI inflation just 1.4 %
The British Economic Revival

- UK unemployment 4.8%
- UK claimant count unemployment 2.9%
- Employment increased 1.9 million since 1997
- Average weekly retail sales up 7.1% year on year
- GDP per head is higher than any other European economy.
  - UK        $30,200
  - Germany   $29,200
  - France    $28,500
What happened to turn things around?
- Deregulation
- Privatization
- Reduction in Trade Union Powers
- Unemployment Benefit reform
Better financial management

- Bank of England more freedom
- Independent control of interest rates
- Stable monetary policy
- Firm fiscal policy
- Successful at creating jobs.
Economic Threats

- Is the pound too strong?
- House price inflation
- Household debt
Help British companies grow and develop their business in the US

Encourage and help US companies expand their business in the UK
Britain and FDI -

- 40% of US Investment into EU
- 19% of Global Investment into EU
- 50% Japanese Investment into EU
- Home to 58% US companies’ European headquarters
- 6,000 US companies
The UK is the favorite European destination.
What is the attraction?

- English Language
- Strong domestic market and springboard onto the continent
- Europe’s most developed financial services industry
- Low rates of taxation
- Europe’s most flexible labor market
- Deregulated commercial environment
- Strong science and innovation base
- Skilled and educated workforce
- Cosmopolitan environment
Telephone: 404 954 7730/7732
Fax: 404 954 7702
Email: Glen.Whitley@fco.gov.uk
Gayle.Sellman@fco.gov.uk
Web: www.UKTradeInvest.com
www.BritainUSA.com